GUM AND CELL PHONES

Fr. Gilbaugh would like to offer a friendly reminder that gum chewing is not appropriate at Mass. Moreover, should someone receive the Eucharist while chewing gum, sacrilege would occur if the person spit the gum out later after it had absorbed Christ's Body and Blood.

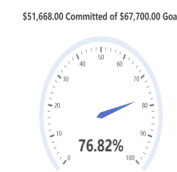

Therefore, please, no gum chewing.

Also, quite a number of cell phones have been making noise at our Masses with calls or text notifications.

Thus, please leave your phones in your cars during Mass.

Thank you, everyone!

If you are interested in using your IRA for your gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal, call the office for instructions.

Marriage Prep

Are you engaged to be married? Are you legally married, but not in the eyes of the Church? A number of couples have already let Father know that they are in need of preparation for exchange of Catholic vows in either a convalidation or a traditional wedding, so he will be starting a marriage prep in January. If he isn't aware of your needs, please let the office know immediately!

Thank you to all who contributed too the giving tree this year!
